Our Processes

How we work with you

So you had the various discussions with your spouse partner, children, family members, friends and acquaintances. You finally made up your mind and now you wish to immigrate to New Zealand. It is a life changing decision and you want to be sure that you have done the right thing. The adrenaline is pumping through your veins and the emotions are high. The question comes, where do I have to start?

You may have family or friends who made the decision to immigrate some time ago. They may say that you are able to do the process yourself or are able to refer you to a company or a Licensed Immigration Adviser to assist in the paperwork. What ever you feel comfortable with is in my view the best solution.

AN ADVISER

However, when you have problems with your teeth, you see a dentist, when you have issues with the law you see a lawyer, when you have issues with your health you see a GP.

When you wish to immigrate to another country, you will need the assistance from a Licensed Immigration Adviser. Quite simple really.

OUR PROCESS

In our first meeting, we will ask you to complete an assessment form or we ask you a lot of questions. This is not because we are nosy but it will give us a chance to assess your options on how to immigrate to New Zealand, what would be the best vehicle or immigration instructions applicable to you.

In cases where you have an immigration history, we may not rely on the information you have provided; we will request under the Official Information Act that Immigration New Zealand releases all information held by them in electronic or in hard copy. Yes, this will take approximately 20 days however we are then able to get the correct picture and thus allowing us to provide you with proper and founded advice.

What does this mean?

INZ - Immigration New Zealand
PR - Permanent Residence
IAA - Immigration Advisers Authority
BMB - Business Migration Branch
